Welcome To Escape Into Travel

Hi There,

I'm Tara Woodbury, the owner of Escape Into Travel.

You might be wondering, what does escape into travel mean? To me, it means taking a break from your hectic daily life and finding joy in exploring a new destination. Travel is a chance for you to reset and reconnect with yourself and your loved ones.

Like most of my clients, I used to be intimidated by the travel planning process. That was until I learned how to properly navigate the world of endless options. Traveling with my family has always been an important part of my life, and I wanted to share my expertise with others who felt the same way.

As a professional travel advisor, I am able to help other families, singles, and groups have unforgettable experiences all over the world. I extensively research each destination and property I book and work hard to match you with the best accommodations, transportation, and excursions to match your travel style.

From finding the most unique excursions in Costa Rica to recommending restaurants in Aruba, I will personalize all aspects of your trip to fit you and your group. There's nothing better than seeing my client's smiles after their big vacation, and I work hard to make each trip special and unforgettable.

Enclosed you will find information about my service levels and fees as well as expectations for both of us. This is a relationship. I don't just want to take your money and run, I want to build trust with you so that you feel comfortable telling your friends and family to book with me too!

So keep reading and let me know if you have any questions!

Cheers,

Tara Woodbury
